SAN ANTONIO, Texas – Local federal contracting company P<sup>3</sup>S Corporation is pleased to announce it was honored by the San Antonio Technology Accelerator Initiative (SATAI) organization at the Technology Innovation Conference Oct. 27.

According to SATAI, the award was conferred because of P3S Corporation's technological innovation in meeting its company mission – assisting federal government agencies while delivering significant savings to the American taxpayer. The awards are presented to promising early-stage San Antonio companies that are poised to become leaders in South Texas' technology community.

"We are thrilled to be honored with this coveted award," said Mary Ellen Trevino, president of P3S Corporation. "We are very proud of our commitment to helping the government meet its mission through technological innovation, and the positive economic impact that has on San Antonio, Texas, and the nation at large."
