

P³S Corporation named Texas's Hispanic Small Business of the Year

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – P³S Corporation is proud to announce it has been selected as the top Hispanic-owned small business in the state of Texas by the U.S. Small Business Administration.

The announcement comes on the heels of several previous local-, state-, and national-level awards the company has received at the hands of various dignitaries. P³S Corporation president and founder Mary Ellen Trevino will accept the award at the National Small Business Week in Washington, D.C., May 23-25. National Small Business Week is an annual event hosted by the U.S. Small Business Administration to recognize the success and contributions of the top small businesses nationwide.

“Being named to receive this award is a tremendous honor,” Trevino said. “Our focus has always been servicing our customers while improving the quality of life of our team members, and this recognition proves that our business model is the right strategy. I will be representing each and every P³S team member in Washington and their incredibly hard work that made this possible.”

Twelve Hispanic-owned businesses will be honored during National Small Business Week, which highlights the growing role of minority-owned enterprises in the nation's economic recovery.

“Job creation is the number-one priority for our nation's economic recovery. Hispanic-owned small businesses are making important contributions to the U.S. economy by helping their communities and creating jobs, and they deserve our recognition,” said SBA Administrator Karen G. Mills. “In this country, we believe hard work leads to success, no matter where you come from. These small businesses prove this belief.”
